

VAN AERT TAKES SOLO WIN AT SUPERPRESTIGE IN GAVERE

Wout Van Aert, Vastgoed-service-Golden Palace, won the fourth round of the Superprestige series on Sunday (8th of november). He finished alone and strengthened his Superprestige lead while Sven Nys (Crelan-AA Drink) beat Kevin Pauwels (Sunweb-Napoleon Games) in the sprint for second place. The next round of the Superprestige series is held at the F1 car racing circuit of Spa-Francorchamps on December 13.

COLNAGO AND NOVO NORDISK WORKING TOGETHER FOR THE NEXT THREE YEARS

Team Novo Nordisk, the world's first all-diabetes professional cycling team, and renowned Italian bike manufacturer, Colnago, announced a new partnership naming Colnago as Team Novo Nordisk's official bike sponsor for 2016 through the 2018 season. Team Novo Nordisk raced on Colnago bikes in 2013, its first professional season.

DID YOU KNOW THAT....

In the end of 1994 Rominger broke the world hour record twice in a few days riding his Colnago at the Bordeaux velodrome to ride 53.832 km (22nd of October) and then 55.291 km (5th of November).
