VAN AERT CONTINUES BPOST BANK WINNING STREAK AT FLANDRIENCROSS

Belgian cyclo-cross star Wout Van Aert (VastgoedService-Golden Palace) dominated a windy third round of the BPost Bank Trophy from start to finish. The 21-year-old held off a late comeback from Sven Nys (Crelan-AA Drink) and won with an 18 seconds bonus over the Belgian veteran. Kevin Pauwels was the third Belgian rider on the podium, finishing at 1:04 from Van Aert.

DID YOU KNOW THAT....

The first professional cycling team with the Colnago logo on the shorts was the team Scic in 1974. At that time Ernesto Colnago decided to leave Molteni team and work with Renzo Fornari.
