Jolien D'hoore and Chloe Hosking take one-two in Madrid Challenge by La Vuelta

Wiggle High5 Pro Cycling's Jolien D'hoore and Chloe Hosking finished an incredible first and second in the Madrid Challenge by La Vuelta, the final event of the 2016 Women's WorldTour, on the Paseo del Prado in the centre of the Spanish capital. D'hoore was expertly led into the finishing straight by Hosking, but both were separated as riders from rival teams launched their sprints in all directions. Hosking followed a move from former World Champion Marta Bastianelli (Alé-Cipollini), while D'hoore bided her time before launching herself up the middle of the road.
