World Cyclocross champion Wout Van Aert takes the second place in the second Superprestige round in Zonhoven, Belgium, after an exhausting battle against the GC leader Mathieu van der Poel.

Did you know that....

Johan Museeuw (born October 13, 1965) was the outstanding cobbled classics rider of his era, having won both Paris-Roubaix and the Ronde van Vlaanderen (Tour of Flanders) each three times. In 1996, the same day of his birthday, he won the world champion title in Lugano, Switzerland, riding Colnago C40.
