

Marcato in the top 30 in the "Hell of the North"

The Italian rider's performance was characterized by the constancy, he managed his energies and he faced a flat tyre in the first cobbles sector. He pedaled in the top contenders group until the Carrefour de l'Arbre, where he had cramps: he reached the finish line in the second chasing group of the five riders who sprinter for the victory, with a gap of 2'24".

"I'm not completely satisfied, because I was not lucky, I had to face accidents that, in the Paris-Roubaix, you can imagine could happen - Marcato (photo Bettini) explained - I was good and, realizing that I was in the group of the favourites, gave me morale. I spent energies to recover the group after the stops for the mechanical intervention, so in the final kilometers I suffered: we were in the Carrefour de l'Arbre, there were still 17 km to go, I tried to give my best and I was close to the top 20".
