The Tour of Turkey belongs to Diego Ulissi

In Istanbul, Diego Ulissi signed his name to the golden legends of the Tour of Turkey. The captain of UAE Team Emirates had no problem defending the general classification leader jersey in the last stage of the Turkish race (Istanbul-Istanbul, 143.7 km), clinching the first World Tour stage race of his career (his 29th success as pro). Ulissi has a 12 second advantage on Hansen (2nd); and 24 on Masnada (3rd).

Audrey Cordon-Ragot wins Chrono des Nations Time Trial

Wiggle High5 Pro Cycling's Audrey Cordon-Ragot has won the prestigious Chrono des Nations Individual Time Trial in Les Herbiers, in the Department of La Vendée, western France. The French Time trial Champion completed the 26.4km course in a time of 35 minutes, 47 seconds, to beat Belgian TT Champion Ann-Sophie Duyck (Team Drops) by 11 seconds, and former British TT Champion Hayley Simmonds (Team WNT) by 23.

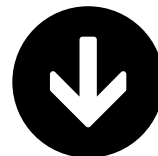

Did you know that...

The first time the logo appeared on the shorts of a professional team was in 1974, when Ernesto Colnago decided to leave the Molteni team and work with Giovanbattista Baronchelli at the Scic team of Renzo Fornari.
