

VAN AERT WINS HIS FIRST NATIONAL CYCLOCROSS TRICOLORE JERSEY

Pre-race favourite Wout Van Aert (Crelan-Vastgoedsservice) lived up to expectations and won his first Belgian title in the Elite men category. Despite a mid-race crash the 21-year-old won on a nearly dry and fast course in his hometown Lille, with a long solo move. He finished well ahead of surprising runner-up Laurens Sweeck (Era Real Estate - Murprotec) and veteran Sven Nys (Crelan-AA Drink).

WIGGLE HONDA PRO CYCLING BECOMES WIGGLE HIGH5 PRO CYCLING FOR 2016

Wiggle Honda Pro Cycling becomes Wiggle High5 Pro Cycling for 2016 as the team's long-standing nutrition partner High5 steps up its commitment to the team to become co-sponsor. Wiggle, the world's leading online cycling and tri-sports retailer, returns to support the team for a fourth season, which will begin the year at Number One in the International Cycling Union (UCI) rankings.

DID YOU KNOW THAT....

The birth of the Colnago's logo

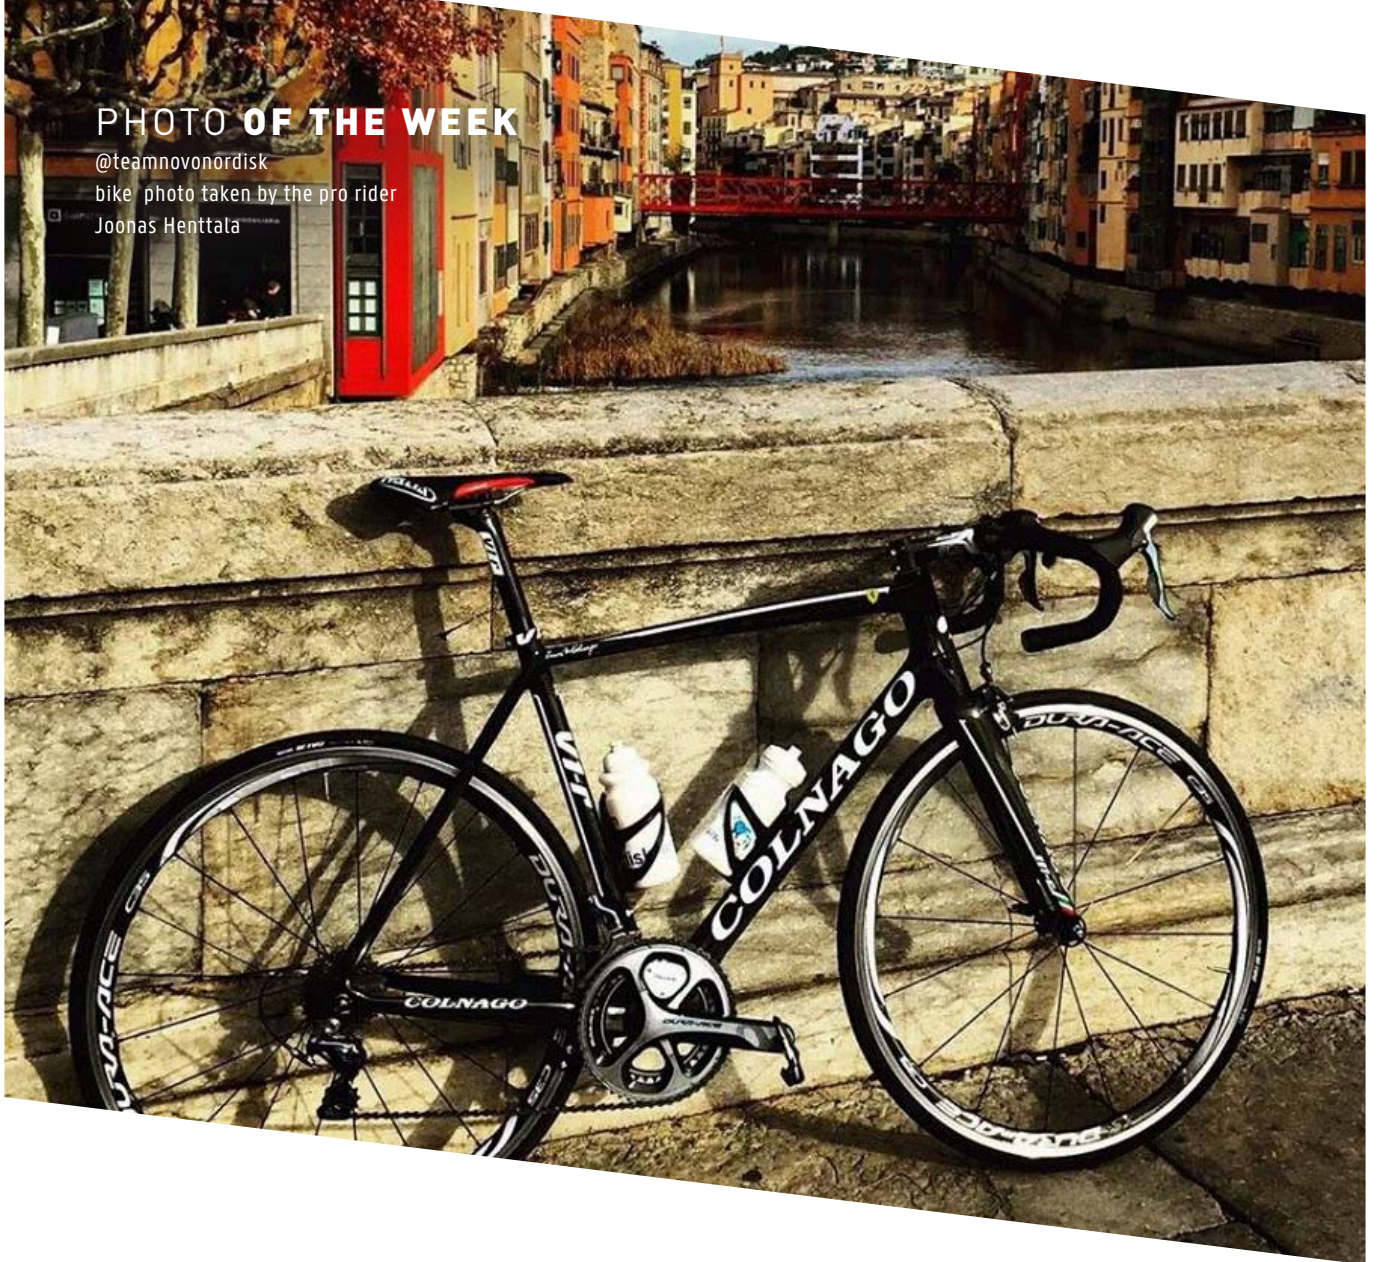

After Dancelli's Milano-Sanremo victory (1970), Ernesto Colnago is inspired to replace his previous eagle emblem with a new mark, the ace of clubs. The logo commemorates the blooming of the spring flowers in Sanremo and Ernesto Colnago's ambition to be "an ace in cycling".
