

COLNAGO BICYCLES CONQUER POLISH FANS

Lang & Charucki will be the distributor of the Colnago brand in Poland. The new partnership was officially presented in the middle of January at the Veloart Studio & Café in Warsaw with many current and former cycling champions, the media, and, especially, many cycling fans in attendance. The size of the crowd reflects the growing popularity of cycling, at all levels and at all ages, in Poland. The full range of Colnago bicycles are available at Veloart.

EDMONDSON AND HOSKING GO ONE-TWO IN SANTOS TOUR CRITERIUM STAGE

Wiggle High5 Pro Cycling's Nettie Edmondson and Chloe Hosking finished the second, criterium stage of the Santos Women's Tour in first and second places in an exciting 40-minute race around Rymill Park, in downtown Adelaide, South Australia.

VAN AERT TOOK THE SECOND PLACE IN WORLD CUP RACE AND MAINTAINS THE LEAD IN OVERALL STANDING

Nothing to do against the World champion Mathieu van der Poel (BKCP-Corendon) who won the third Wc race in a row (in Lignières, France) just two weeks ahead of his rainbow jersey defence. But, in the gc still lead the runner-up Wout Van Aert (Crelan-Vastgoedsservice) who won the battle with European champion Lars van der Haar (Giant-Alpecin). The World cup leader managed to shake off the Dutch rider in the final lap, and increased his lead over Van der Haar in the standings with five points up to 21 points.
