MAYUKO HAGIWARA WINS THE ASIAN TIME TRIAL CHAMPIONSHIP

Wiggle High5 Pro Cycling's Mayuko Hagiwara has added the title of Asian Time Trial Champion to her long list of Japanese National titles as she took victory in the 22.4km test on the Japanese Island of Oshima. Riding the classic white, grey and red colours of the Japanese National Team, Hagiwara's time of 32 minutes and 35 seconds was just enough to beat Ju Mi Lee of South Korea by a fraction of a second, while Pang Yao of Hong Kong took the bronze medal another minute and 40 seconds behind.

GAZPROM-RUSVELO AT THE TOUR DE POLOGNE

The Lang Team has assigned the last two wild cards for the 73rd edition of the Tour de Pologne-UCI World Tour which is scheduled this year from July 12th to the 18th.

They turn out to be the Russian formation Gazprom-RusVelo and Britain's ONE Pro Cycling, who join the five previously assigned wild cards (CCC Sprandi Polkowice, Verva ActiveJet, Bardiani CSF, Team Novo Nordisk and Reprezentacja Polski) thus bringing to seven the total number of teams invited to the 2016 Tour de Pologne.
