VAN AERT SOLO WIN AT SUPERPRESTIGE FRANCORCHAMPS

Young Wout Van Aert (VastgoedService-Golden Palace) destroyed the opposition during a muddy fifth round of the Superprestige cyclo-cross series at the famous F1 car racing circuit of Spa-Francorchamps, Belgium. A mud-clad Van Aert had more than a minute bonus over runner-up Sven Nys (Crelan-AA Drink). Van Aert extends his already comfortable lead in the Superprestige series over Nys up to nine points.

WIGGLE HONDA WIN BEST WOMEN'S TEAM OF 2015 IN CYCLINGNEWS READER POLL

Wiggle-Honda have won the vote for Best Women's Team of 2015 in this year's annual Cyclingnews Reader Poll. The orange and black clad team won the award with 24 per cent of the votes, beating runner-up team Rabo Liv's 19 per cent and Boels Dolmans' 16 per cent. It's another commanding performance from the team that secured 35 wins this season and finished third overall in the final UCI standings.

DID YOU KNOW THAT....

The dutch rider Joop Zoetmelk has participated, as a professional, to seventeen editions of the World road Championships. Obtained the fifth place in 1972, 1973 and 1975 and fourth in 1976 and 1982. In 1985, at 39 years of age, in the end of his career, won the rainbow jersey in Gaver del Montello (Italy). At the moment is still the oldest professional cyclist to have won the title on the road
