

Ganna wins worlds individual pursuit title

Filippo Ganna was waiting for the big ride, and finally he did it after helping Italy to the team pursuit bronze medal in the Alpe d'Auza world championships. On Friday 2nd March he won the individual pursuit gold medal in the Dutch track, setting two Italian records: 4-13.622 in qualifying and 4-13.607 in the final against Portuguese Ivo Oliveira.

Elisa Longo Borghini third in tough, muddy Strade Bianche

Wiggle High5 Pro Cycling's Elisa Longo Borghini took an outstanding third place in the Strade Bianche, her third podium finish in the new Italian Classic in its four editions, on the iconic Piazza del Campo, in the Tuscan city of Siena. The Italian Champion, resplendent in her green, white and red jersey, was one of the most aggressive riders in the closing stages of the race, but was just unable to follow the pace set by Olympic Champion Anna van der Breggen (Boels-Dolmans) on the final section of white road.

Road to Milan-Sanremo:

UAE Team Emirates aiming for stages and general classification in Paris-Nice and Tirreno-Adriatico. Rui Costa, Martin and Kristoff will lead the Emirati squad in the French race, started yesterday with the first stage.

Did you know that...

Classic races are coming in the North of Europe. Did you know that the Colnago C40 was the first carbon frame to win the Paris-Roubaix in 1995 thanks to Italian rider Franco Ballerini. The original bike is in the Colnago museum at Cambiago.

FREE
DOWNLOAD
COLNAGO'S
PICTURES

3 images
ZIP file - 8 Mb

